THE SENIOR CLASS

MIDDLEBURG HIGH SCHOOL

Middleburg, North Carolina

Appreciation

To our dear parents, we wish to set aside a portion of our annual in appreciation for their untiring efforts in helping us over these twelve years of school. Whenever problems arose that were too hard for us to solve, they were always there, ready and waiting to help us with them. They always encouraged us on to higher ideals and goals and were interested in our welfare and activities. We know that we can never fully describe how we feel on paper but we will try in the years to come to prove to them our endless love and thanks for what they have done in trying to make them proud of us and feel that their efforts were not in vain.

Dedication

To Mrs. C. G. Williams Jr., we wish to dedicate the 1957 Carrier. Although she was with us for only a short time, she gave her devotion and full attention. Her thoughtfulness and kindness will long be remembered by her students. She gave willingly of herself to help those of us that needed guidance and understanding.

Class History

As our days at Middleburg are coming to an end, we the class of '57 look back over our year's together. These years have brought us much happiness. They bind us to our unforgettable school and many friends we have made here.

As we begin our tour over these years we recall that we began in the year of 1945 with Miss Thelma Duncan as our first teacher. We worked hard to learn "Reading, 'Riting and 'Rithmetic".

Before we knew it our first year was over and we were in our second year with Miss Orpie Rogers, now Mrs. Russell, teaching us how to spell.

Miss Corine Alexander was our next teacher, she taught us even more arithmetic. Ruth Jordan joined us here.

The fourth grade teacher, Miss Anna Clark, took us around the world with her Geography book. Shelton Adcock and Becky Grissom joined us here.

No one wanted to teach us so Miss Mary Young came in to teach us. Miss Young had the seventh grade to teach so we got a new teacher to take her job for the fifth grade. She was Mrs. Ila D. Currin. Fayette Byrd joined us here.

After that year we moved on up to the sixth grade with a full year with Miss Nannie Burt.

Miss Mary Young was there to greet us in the seventh grade. Alpha Paschall joined us this year. We had a very prosperous year. Miss Young took us on a tour of Henderson and later a few of us went to Durham, Chapel Hill and Raleigh.

As we moved up to the eighth grade we had Jim Goodman, who was the coach, as our homeroom teacher. Mr. Fred Hale taught us history. Pat Anderson joined us here.

Freshmen! At last! It took us only a short while to get used to High School regulations. Mr. Fred Hale was our homeroom teacher and also taught us Civics. Mrs. Mary McColl taught us English; Mr. Young taught us Algebra; Mr. Blum taught Agriculture and Miss Mewborn, Home Economics.

Sophomores was our new name the next year. Miss Ailine Mewborn was our homeroom teacher. Mr. Young, Mrs. McColl, Mr. Hale and Mr. Blum were our other teachers. Lance Wilson joined us here.

Juniors, this meant two more short years to go. This was our big year. First, we got our class rings, later on we went to Washington, D. C. We gave a Junior play which was to make money for the Jr.-Sr. Banquet. Our banquet was a great success. Mrs. McColl was our homeroom teacher.

And now we come to our last year. We have the title of "Seniors". It is hard to realize that we are really Seniors but as we began to work we realized it more. Mrs. McColl our homeroom teacher again, directed our Senior play entitled "Ten O'clock Scholar". A new teacher joined us this year, Mr. John Mundy teaches us typing and Business Economics. Mr. Biangardi moved up to High School teaching.

Class Prophecy

This is the year of 1970. Times have certainly changed. As I sit here at my desk in the office of the Middleburg Illustrated Press, I think of the way this fair town has changed. All of my old school chums have become very prominent citizens of this booming metropolis. They have become international figures for the most part. I think I shall leave my desk for a while, forget the column I have to write, and visit my classmates.

It isn't very sunny in this part of town for Billy Floyd has erected so many skyscrapers with his money that "Old Sol" doesn't have space to penetrate. It is a known fact that Billy is putting Rockefeller out of business!!

I think I'll visit Ferebee Poythress first. She is running a very modern up-to-date dress shop. She styles her own clothes and makes up styles for Middleburg's most famous model, Miss Patricia Anderson. Pat, by the way won the "Miss Paris Model Contest" this year. Seems she defeated Marilyn and Gina!

Looks as though they are quite busy today so I won't go in.

As I walk down the street I see a very familiar face approaching me. It belongs to Becky Grissom. She has her twelve children with her. It seems that she and John Richard White can't quite agree on the subject of music. John Richard's Rock-N-Roll dance band is trying to take away Becky's hillbilly customers. By the way, Elvis is now singing with "Little John Richard's "Cool Cats."

In the distance I see one of Fayette Byrd's oil wells. They say he struck oil while digging for a bone his favorite Fox Dog buried.

Speaking of Fayette made me think of an item in our paper the other day. As I recall Lance Wilson is sueing Fayette. Seems as though Fayette's oil well is spouting over on Lances International Airport and causing quite a mess.

There is talk of late that Peggy Young and Sarah Jane Reavis are soon to be employed by one of the towns top executives, Mr. Shelton Adcock. Mr. Adcock won his success by building a better mouse trap.

Sarah Jane gave up the idea of being a concert pianist. It is rumored that she might undertake a life-time job with a Mr. Currin, who is owner of a large supermarket.

Peggy said that she too might like to leave Middleburg and move to Rook Street.

The three remaining girls of our class of '57 have turned into unforgetable figures. Al Paschall will leave shortly for the Olympics (Women's class). At the present she is busy buying a vast number of clothes for the trip. Ruth Jordan, her business manager, and Nancy Davis, her close friend, are going with her to keep her out of mischief. Knowing Al----Hum----I wonder!! But then too, I won't be there to help her!!

I almost forgot to tell you, Ruth and Nancy are going to work for the Ford car corporation soon.

I hope folks can profit by the success of my classmates and friends.

HELEN ANNE FULLER
Class Prophet

The Last Will And Testament

We, the Senior Class of 1957, being about to pass out of this sphere of education, with a greater possession of knowledge, and a better understanding of life, wish to leave some tokens to be remembered by.

Shelton Adcock wishes to leave the eighth grade girls to anyone looking for trouble.

Pat Anderson leaves her ability to trod the path to Middleburg to Carol Ann Jones.

Fayette Byrd leaves his ability to work Algebra to Mr. Biangardi, since he hears he needs it.

Nancy Davis leaves her ability to write love-letters to anyone who needs it, hoping it turns out better than hers.

Billy Floyd leaves his 20-20 vision to Richard Buchan so he can see if his head lights are on.

Helen Anne Fuller leaves to Nancy Ellington a hubcap off a certain Cadillac, hoping that Nancy won't lose the one off the Ford anymore.

Becky Grissom leaves her ability to get Townsville boys to Rosa Abbott, since Becky didn't do so well with a certain one.

Ruth Jordan leaves to Ann Harris the Norlina boys. Ruth has gone back to Aycock.

Al Paschall leaves "going steady" to the birds.

Ferebee Poythress leaves her ability to find one sweet "man" and keep him to Kathleen Norwood.

Sarah Jane Reavis just wants to leave------I wonder if it has anything to do with the Pic-N-Pay??

John Richard White wishes to leave his cousin Al to Jerry Poythress, seems he's going to take her anyway.

Lance Wilson leaves his politeness to Ralph Breedlove, although Ralph doesn't need it.

Peggy Young leaves her feminine ways to Nancy Ellington.
